BABYLAND.

Blows a breeze from Babyland, from Babyland, from Babyland;
Scent o' sweets from Babyland, o' blossom time and May.
Leave awhile your weary quest, some dim and Never-may-be land;
Wander back to Babyland, dear land of Yesterday.

There the dawn still lingers and her silver feet fall slowly,
Softly over waking fields a-glimmer with the dew;
There the peace is perfect and the fragrant hush is holy.
Ah, the dawn in Babyland when all the world was new!
