JOAN THOMPSON'S MODERN COURSE FOR THE PIANO

FOR BOYS

LET'S JOIN THE ARMY

By John Thompson

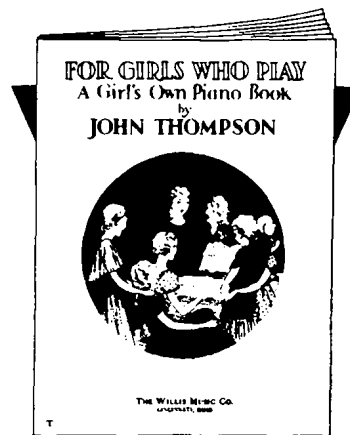

This book has been especially dedicated to the American Boy, however, the gentle sex is also fond of it.

DURING instruction, the teacher assumes the rôle of Commanding Officer, giving directions in “orders” or “commands” similar to the military manner. Exercises are presented in the form of pieces to develop finger legato, wrist staccato, arm staccato and phrasing attack. Many examples, built upon bugle calls have been introduced to stress rhythm; a musical characteristic of most boys.

Stamps bearing the insignia of every rank in the army and reproductions of medals will be found in the back of the book, which the teacher will present as awards of merit. Each promotion is given only when well earned.
