I am offering the dedication of these words and music, to Mrs. Chiang Kai Shek: the daughter of my very dear Friend, Dr. Sun Yat Sen, who wrote to me, a few days after he became President of China; offering to give me the direction of the Physical-Culture and Athletics of the wole of China. Charles ~~Norton~~ Eliot, the President Emeritus of Harvard University, told me in Minneapolis in 1912 (?); that he considered Dr. Sun Yat Sen, to be one of the seven greatest men that had ever lived. And when I showed a picture of Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek, and his wife to Dr. John R. Mott, in Havana, in 1939; he said I consider Mrs. Chiang Kai Shek to be the greatest woman who has ever lived, excepting the Mother of Christ, the Virgin Mary. And President Theodore Roosevelt considered Dr. John R. Mott to be one of the five greatest living men in the world, at that time; while he was president of the United States.
